Oneida County Board of Canvass

Mary Bartelt, Oneida County Clerk, called the recount to order at 9:15 a.m.

Observers were introduced.

Ms. Bartelt made a few announcements.

- A. Cell phones are allowed, but must be on vibrate
- B. No food or drink
- C. Quiet Environment request
- D. Board of Canvass agreed to both hand count and machine count according to how the original ballots were processed.
- E. The optical scan machine public test will take place at 1:30 p.m., as noticed.
- F. Ms. Bartelt introduced the poll workers who will serve as tabulators.
- G. Notice of public test and notice of recount had been properly posted.
- H. Introduced substitutes (Darlene Neuman, 30 yr. old poll worker and Renee Wilson Gallagher, Town of Piehl, Town Clerk) sitting on the Board of Canvass, taking the place of Board of Canvasser, Deb White and Board of Canvasser, Barb Henderson.
- I. Noted the municipalities which will be recounted (all) with the exception of the Town of Enterprise who has not supplied her poll book. Will bring in ASAP.
- J. We will begin with poll list reconciliation: Enterprise, Little Rice, Lynne, Monico, Piehl, Schoepke, Stella and Woodboro, etc.
- K. Each Town will have individual minutes as attached.
- L. Oathed in Poll Workers and Board of Canvassers.
